South Carolina.

The following occurs in the message of the Governor of South Carolina, to the General Assembly now in session at Columbia:

"In view of the circumstances surrounding us—when it is remembered that the State has just emerged from a long and disastrous war, in which not only her sons but her resources were prodigally bestowed—that our banks have all been destroyed—that more than three hundred millions of property have been annihilated—that all the fountains for credit and property have been broken up—that our system of labor has been thoroughly disorganized—that the refreshing and revivifying showers have been withheld from a parched and exhausted soil, and that want, if not famine, will keep ghastly vigils in mansion and in hovel; when it is remembered that nearly all of the merchants of the State have been able to compromise their indebtedness to Northern creditors on most liberal terms, surely, the creditor class will practice forbearance and give their debtors still further indulgence. If compelled to enforce collections, they should, in the same fair and liberal spirit, make compromises with debtors so as not to drive them and their families from home, kindred and friends.

The existing embarrassments growing out of the indebtedness of the country will, like other evils, produce beneficial results. Debtors will find it to their interest to make final adjustment of their debts, even though they are compelled to surrender their property. As long as their debts remain, interest will be accumulating, to culminate in more disastrous bankruptcy. If they surrender their property now to creditors, they can resume their occupations and labor with cheerfulness, knowing that its proceeds will sooner or later re-build their broken fortunes.

The debtor who desires to compromise with his creditors has the means of compelling the veriest Shylock to accept fair terms or exclude him in all share of his estate by assignment, giving liberal creditors the preference, or by voluntary confession of judgment.

Believing that no stay law can be passed embracing antecedent debts, that will not conflict with that clause of the constitution of the United States which declares that "no State shall pass any law impairing the obligation of contracts," I respectfully recommend for your consideration, for the relief of debtors—

1st. That imprisonment for debt on mesne and final process be abolished, except in case of fraud; and then as a punishment for the crime, rather than as a means of enforcing payment of the debt.

2d. That no costs be taken against a defendant, either for the officers of the court or for the attorney.

3d. That the insolvent debtors' laws be so extended as that any debtor may, by petition, after due notice, summon all his creditors, and upon assigning his estate and effects for their benefit, be discharged from all other liability, not only to suing, but to all other credits. Being thus relieved from the incubus resting on him, the honest and enterprising debtor will go to work with alacrity and prove himself a useful member of society."

Stamps on Deeds.

The Petersburg Index has been favored by a friend with the following letter. It is in relation to a matter that interests all citizen who are holders of, or otherwise parties to deeds, the records of which have been destroyed during the war.

It will be seen that deeds executed before October 1st, 1862, require new stamps. This has been frequently published, but want of information respecting it is still the cause of trouble and expense:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, Sept. 8th, 1866.

Sir: I reply to your letter of the 4th inst., that the first Internal Revenue Act took effect, so far as related to stamp duties, October 1st, 1862. Instruments executed and delivered prior to that date, though they may be recorded afterwards, are not chargeable with stamp duties.

Any instrument issued after the above date, without the proper stamps, may be presented to the collector by the parties, or any persons interested, in order to have the requisite stamps affixed and cancelled. Such an instrument issued at a time when, and in a place where no collection district was established, may be stamped by the party who issued it, or by any party having an interest therein, at any time prior to January 1st, 1867. When originals are lost the necessary stamps may be affixed to copies duly proven.

Very respectfully,
E. A. ROLLINS, Comm'r.
Mr. J. A. PETERSON, Petersburg Va.

The President Offers Himself a Victim.

At his reception in Baltimore, on Saturday evening, the President, in the course of his speech, used the following language:

[illegible] for exercising the pardoning power. If I have erred, I have erred on mercy's side, and have been prompted by conscientious convictions, and I shall ask the pardon of no one for doing it. There is no satisfying one portion of our people. They don't want peace. They want the war to continue; and, in this connection, it has been said that I was an obstacle in their way, and was to be put out of the way. Who have suffered more than I have? Then surely if I, who have suffered much, can forgive, those who have suffered none should do likewise. (Laughter.) There are yet some who desire the spilling of more blood. If it is necessary to save the nation from the spilling of more blood and treasure—if nothing but blood will slake their thirst—if blood will please them and save my country—then erect an altar, and if they want a victim here he stands. (Tremendous cheering.) Let them put me upon it, and my blood shall be poured out for my country's cause. (Cheers and cries of "No, never," &c.) What is one man compared to the great destinies of this vast country? (A voice—"You are equal to ten thousand men.") Let them take it, and my dying admonition will be that "the blood of the martyr is the seed of the church."

While a convict in the Pennsylvania penitentiary was using the most blasphemous language, cursing everybody, cursing Christ, cursing God, and prououncing God the author of all sin, and ridiculing the Bible, he was suddenly struck down with apoplexy, and remained unconscious until he died.

A VALUABLE COTTON FARM FOR RENT OR LEASE,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fertilizing constituents, 6 pr. ct. of Oxyolyte, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 20, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

County Meeting.

We are requested to suggest that a meeting of the conservative citizens of Wake, who support the policy of President Johnson, and are favorable to the re-election of Gov. Worth, be held at the Court House, in this city, on Saturday, the 22nd. inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates to represent this County in the next Legislature, and of consulting together upon the condition of the country.

It is very desirable that the conservatives in each Captain's district take steps to be represented upon the occasion.

The Holden-Radical Convention.

To-day is the day fixed upon by Mr. Holden for the assembling of the Holden-Radical Convention in this city.

Up to 2 o'clock, no public meeting of this Convention has been called. We learn that there was a caucus, last night, at Mr. Holden's office, and further that there will be a meeting of the delegates held at the Standard office at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Our reporter informs us, that he learns that fifteen delegates have arrived from abroad, who profess to represent eight Counties out of the eighty-nine in the State. This, we presume, does not include the delegation from Wake.—The principal delegation is from Newbern.

It has been currently reported on the streets, that Gen. Alfred Dockery has intimated his willingness to be nominated for Governor by this so-called Convention. We do not believe the rumor. It is a libel upon so discreet and respectable a man as we take Gen. Dockery to be.

P. S. We have just learned that the Convention is, as we expected it would be, a complete fizzle. No public demonstration will be made by the delegates to the great Holden-Thomas-Menninger-Lehman-Tourgee-Carpenter-Radical Convention.

A Word to the Johnson-Worth Men.

We have repeatedly and distinctly stated our position, first, that the great and most important issue before the people of North Carolina is the adjustment of the national difficulties of the government with the Southern States, as early as possible, upon the plan and policy of President Johnson. To this plan is opposed the Congressional (Howard) amendment of the Constitution of the U. S., and the programme of the Radical party. We have repeatedly said that we are committed heart and soul to the plan and policy of President Johnson and to the principles enunciated by the Philadelphia Convention of Aug. 14th., in opposition to the Howard amendment and all Radical positions.

Secondly, We have said, that this is the great, all absorbing issue, in comparison with which all merely State issues should be held as subordinate: The early reconciliation of the late revolting States with the government, under the Constitution as it is, by the admission of our loyal Senators and Representatives into the National Congress, subject to the Constitutional right of both Houses to judge of the qualifications of its members. And further, that no further amendments to the Constitution of the United States ought to be made or can be legitimately made, until all the States of the Union are thus represented.—That is our platform. We understand it is the platform upon which Gov. Worth stands and will stand. We can support no man for Governor or for the Legislature, in whose platform that is not the chief plank.

Thirdly, We have said that the friends of President Johnson and Gov. Worth, agreeing entirely upon that platform, may safely be left to the guidance of their own judgments, as to the fitness or unfitness of this or that State measure or issue, in voting for members of the Legislature.

The questions involving our National relations cannot be put off or deferred longer, without hazard. The Howard amendment will be submitted to our next Legislature for its adoption or rejection. We can support no man who is not against the Howard amendment. State matters or issues may be safely left to the wisdom and intelligence of the next Legislature, if we are careful to select sound-minded and sound-hearted men to that body. The people should select none others.

As to the imposition of additional State taxes, we know no man who is in favor of such a measure, in view of the present condition of our impoverished people. That question we consider a settled one for the next Legislature. Ardent as we are in support of the public schools, we seriously doubt if our people can bear even such additional taxes for that purpose as would do anything efficiently.

We warn every true friend of the Union and of the State against committing himself to any man or measure, which will in the least endanger the great issue, the success of President Johnson's policy in North Carolina. We are satisfied that these views accord with the sentiments of Gov. Worth and of every truly conservative man in the State.

FUNEREAL.—We observe that the National flag is liberally suspended, to-day, from the building occupied by the Chief Quartermaster of the Department of North Carolina. We take it that this is done out of respect to the memory of defunct Radicalism in North Carolina, whose obsequies are progressing to-day with Holden, Thomas, Lehman, Menninger & Co., as pall-bearers. We take it for granted that this is the object of the display. Political antipathy to the Administration, of course, can have nothing to do with it.

The Pittsburgh Convention.

We are requested by the Chairman of the Resident Committee for North Carolina, appointed by the National Executive Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union, for the purpose of acting in conjunction with the General Committee in securing a full representation at the Pittsburgh Convention, to announce the names of the following delegates to the Convention from this State; and to state also that not only those named, but all loyal Union Soldiers and Sailors of North-Carolina, who may see fit to attend, will receive a cordial welcome to the Convention:

Surgeon H. J. Menninger, Newbern.
Capt. A. H. Tourgee, Hendersonville.
" C. Hoggard, Windsor.
" Littleton Johnson, do.
Lieut. J. H. Etheridge, Beaufort.
" W. C. Liverman, Roxabel.
" W. Henry Eddins, Forestville.
" J. T. Mizell, Plymouth.
" Cherry, Washington.
" Elijah A. Smith, Onslow C. H.
" Barnes Griffith, Winston.
Privates Henry Copeland, James Godwin, Thomas Copeland, Daniel Overton, John M. Brinkley, James Askew, Lemuel W. Parker and Cincinnatus Pierce, Winton.
First Sergeant A. McKensie, Wilmington.
Private George N. Green, Colerain.
Private Joseph A. Odom, Rich Square.
Private Eli Copeland, Edenton.
Privates Gaston Greene and John W. Wilson, Murfreesboro'.
Hospital Steward Nutting, Portsmouth, N. C.
Sergeant Richard Lowe and privates Abner Harrell and John W. Holleman, Harrellsville.
Gunner Jas. W. Green, U. S. Navy, Winton.
Landsman William Askew, Colerain.

We copy the foregoing from the last Standard. It gives us an insight into the material of which that paper thinks the Pittsburg Conventon should be composed. While the great and patriotic gathering at Cleveland, which has just adjourned, was made up of the representative fighting men of the Federal army, the one at Pittsburg, under the auspices of Butler, Schurz, Banks and Schenck, is to consist, if we may take the above delegation as a specimen, of a very different class. The Standard speaks of the men named in the foregoing list as "loyal Union soldiers of North Carolina." Now we charge that many of them were buffaloes and deserters from the Confederate army, who lived, after their desertion, by plundering and thieving, and who were not regular members of the Union army at the outset of the war. We can specify names, if necessary.

And the inevitable Tourgee turns up again, too. Is he a North Carolina loyal Union soldier? Where and when were his military exploits performed?

Is the Standard really crazy, that it thus identifies itself with such men as we have described, who are a disgrace to the State and to humanity. Deserters and thieves may "receive a cordial welcome" at the hands of such men as Butler. "Birds of a feather, &c." But such creatures would be kicked out of any assemblage of true soldiers.

IF ANY RADICAL from the North, or any Radical sympathizer in our midst, had been treated in a speaking tour through the Southern States as the President was treated in some places on his recent journey, Radical papers would have dilated through glowing pages on all the details; Harper's Weekly Journal of Civil-lies-ation would have been filled with pictures of the Southern mob in the hideous orgies of its fury; and every Radical head would have almost bursted with the growing conviction of the barbarism and unfitness for government of the Southern people.

The truth is that there is, at this very moment, less freedom of speech and far less toleration at the North than there is at the South. The slander that Union or Northern men are persecuted for opinion's sake in the South is the invention of malignant and disappointed men, who have justly forfeited the respect and confidence of their neighbors, and are filled with revengeful feelings thereat. They cannot point to a solitary instance of such persecution. We have defied them to do so, but they persistently shield themselves under cover of false generalities. They are themselves the persecutors—they would, to gratify their hate, disfranchise and degrade their fellow-citizens.—This is the true Radical spirit, North and South. Even the President of the United States cannot pass through the land, on a patriotic mission, without being subjected to insults and indignities that would disgrace a set of savages. The same spirit, if allowed to proceed to its legitimate results, will destroy the country beyond the hope of salvation.

"The TIMES called the Radicals Johnson-Union men, in contradistinction to Johnson-Worth men, as named by the Sentinel."—Newbern Times.

Ah! there it is at last. The Times calls itself Johnson-Union, and amusingly calls the Radicals Johnson-Union, also. The Times thereby confesses itself a Radical. We have often charged this, but that paper has invariably denied the impeachment.

A Radical-Johnson-Union man! Where is Barnum? Such a nondescript animal lays the Feejee mermaid and the woolly-horse completely in the shade.

"The Sentinel and its echoes are either most stupidly ignorant of the true position of the President, or else they are wickedly hypocritical. The only difference between the President and Congress is, that the President would declare the States reconstructed and admit, at once, all loyal members from them, Congress itself being the judge of loyalty, while Congress would insist upon closing the doors of the two houses until the very identical things which the President has demanded shall have been secured by constitutional amendment."—Newbern Times.

We acknowledge the "stupidity" of the Sentinel in not being able to understand the above nonsense, in view of the facts before the country. We could read as easily and intelligibly the brayings of a jack-ass.

THE TENNESSEE CONVENTION POSTPONED.—In consequence of the alarm felt by numbers of delegates and others throughout the State, at the presence of cholera in Nashville, the State Executive Committee announce a postponement to the 3d day of October. So Parson Brownlow may sleep soundly nights a little while longer.—N. Y. Evening Express.

The Great Johnson-Union Demonstration in New York.

New York has spoken in a manner that will have its influence upon the destinies of the country.

The demonstration on the evening of the 17th in support of the President and his policy, was the most imposing ever witnessed in that great city. Over seventy-five thousand persons are said to have been present on the occasion, and the enthusiasm displayed showed that their sympathies were warmly enlisted.

The surroundings and decorations of the meeting were unequalled as a spectacle, and distinguished speakers addressed the thronging thousands from numerous stands. But better, says the World, than the speakers, or the bands, or the blazing fireworks, was the sight of the vast multitude who gathered under the statue of Washington, and pledged an invincible determination to put down, finally and forever, the last enemies of the Union which he and the fathers framed.

The account of this immense outpouring of the people occupies sixteen closely printed columns of the New York World. Among the most prominent speakers were Gen. Dix, Hon. Jno. T. Hoffman, Gov. Parsons, Hon. R. H. Pruyn, Hon. S. J. Tilden, Hon. H. J. Raymond, Ex-Mayor Vaux, of Philadelphia, Col. Huger, of Mississippi, Gen. Sturgis, Jno. G. Saxe, Senators McDougald, of California, and Call, of Florida, Hons. S. S. Cox, of Ohio, and A. J. Rogers, of New Jersey, Hon. Geo. M. Curtis, Heram Ketchum, and others. The speeches all breathed the most national, conservative and conciliatory spirit, and were received with intense enthusiasm. Gen. Dix presided at the centre and principal stand, and among the Vice Presidents we notice the names of such men as Hamilton Fish, A. T. Stewart, W. H. Aspinwall, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jno. J. Cisco, Henry Grinnell, and Auguste Belmont.

The World says:

"The matter-of-fact estimates of the number present varied with the different positions of the spectators, and doubtless each one carried away a separate idea of the proper rate of thousands on hand. There was an agreement on one point—every one calculated that there were thousands present. But how many thousands? No one thought it could be less than forty thousand. Those that ran the estimate so low as this saw only a section of the surging mass. The easiest way to measure the crowd was by acres. From Thirteenth street across Fourth avenue, Broadway, University place, and Fifth avenue; thence through all these thoroughfares, including the immense open space of Union square, upwards, to the farther end of Eighteenth street, there was such a density of humanity that, from a commanding point, the mass of heads were more ubiquitious and numerous than the leaves of a forest. The great army which no man can number received constant accession, and after sweeping this huge extent of people till they disappeared from the eye upon the horizon of the night, or after, what was more exact, making the two and a half miles circuit of the crowd, as thick at any extent as at the centre point, one would do injustice to space and mathematics did he put the number at a fraction less than 75,000 continuous spectators, while the fluctuating and itinerant reinforcements, which were ever coming and going, swelled the throng, in the judgment of those most versed in such estimates, to the easy numerical extent of a tenth of a million souls."

The following are the resolutions adopted.—They deserve to be written in letters of gold. Let their spirit be carried out, and the country will soon present a glorious spectacle of national unity:

Resolved, That we select this, the anniversary of the day that George Washington and his compatriots affixed their names to the Constitution of the United States, as an appropriate day for the adoption and ratification of the Declaration of the principles proclaimed by the National Union Convention, composed of delegates from every State and District and Territory of the American republic, which assembled in the City of Philadelphia on the 14th of August last.

Resolved, That the charities of life, the precepts of our religion, and a wise public policy dictate as the first and paramount duty of every American citizen, to aid in healing the wounds and subduing the passions of civil war, and restoring the Union of these States, so that in the day of peril, whether from commercial disaster or foreign war, our national securities and public credit may remain unimpaired, and the national flag maintained by the whole united American people.

Resolved, That we regard it as the great felicity and chief distinction of the American people, that they are governed by a written Constitution, which is the supreme law of the land, and that the co-ordinate branches of the Federal government, the legislative, the executive, and the judicial, have no powers except those derived from that instument; while the declaration by the majority of the present Congress, that the late civil war has invested them with the irresponsible powers of military conquerors, and that they recognize no rules except those by which the conquering sovereigns of Europe have been accustomed to tyrannize over subjugated nations, is abhorrent to every lover of constitutional government, and if acquiesced in will reduce six millions of American citizens to the condition of subjugated aliens, and convert ten States into ten Polands, ten Hungaries, or ten Irelands.

Resolved, That the unquestioned constitutional right of each branch of Congress to determine the qualifications of its own members, enables it to protect the National Legislature from disloyal or treacherous Senators and Representatives, whether from the South, North, East or West; but the assumption of the right of a majority in Congress to defy an unchangeable mandate of the Constitution, and utterly deprive States of their Senators and the people of their Representatives, is revolutionary, and subversive of our institutions.

Resolved, That Congress, by an act defining treason and its penalties, expressly conferred upon the President of the United States the right to exempt from punishment by proclamation of amnesty and pardon those who had committed acts of treason or resisted the authority of the United States; that, in compliance with the authority so conferred, President Johnson, at the end of the civil war, issued a proclamation of amnesty and pardon, which, under the laws of nations and the common law of the land, rehabilitated the Southern people included in its provisions in all their rights; and that to disregard this solemn amnesty, which in all civilized nations would be deemed an "oblivion to all offences," to persist in their disfranchisement, taxation without representation, threatened confiscation, and the imposition of every badge of servitude, is an outrage on humanity, and a violation of the national honor.

Resolved, That the precise and clearly defined issue now before the American people is, whether they will elect a Congress that will respect the imperative commands of the Constitution, as to Senators, Representatives, and Presidential electors, or whether they will continue a Congressional majority in power, which gives no guarantee that it will not by conditions precedent, that multiply with the exigences of party, not only indefinitely exclude States from the Union, but overthrow our form of government itself.

Resolved, That we are profoundly grateful that Andrew Johnson, in his high office, untempted by the proffer from Congress of almost despotic power, has maintained that love for the Constitution of our fathers which characterizes the true American citizen; and that, in his masterly state papers and familiar conversations with the people, he has demonstrated that he not only comprehends the Constitution, but that, true to his oath of office, he will preserve, protect, and defend it.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Cleveland---Large Attendance---Preliminary Organization at Cleveland--Eloquent Speech of General Wool.

CLEVELAND, O., September 17.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, in response to a call from those favorable to the policy of President Johnson and the action of the Philadelphia Convention of August 14th, met in this city today.

A pavilion 150 feet in length by sixty in breadth had been erected in the park for the use of the Convention. At 3 o'clock the delegation entered, preceded by a band of music, and were seated; after which the crowd from the outside was admitted, and filled the tent to its utmost capacity. Previous to the organization quite a spirited scene was witnessed; the delegations rising and cheering with all their might successively for "The Old Flag," Generals Custar, Rousseau, Wool, McClellan, the Constitution, the thirty-six States, and Andrew Johnson. After a brief breathing spell, cheers were given for Grant, Secretary Seward, the American army, General Steedman, and Governor Bramlette of Kentucky. As the cheering was called for and given, in each case there was a scene of wild enthusiasm, delegates and spectators rising and swinging their hats, and shouting most vigorously.

By previous arrangement, Governor Bramlette nominated Major-General John E. Wool, as the oldest major-general in the United States, and probably in the world, as temporary president.

Gentlemen.—Grateful thanks for your cheering welcome; a more flattering and agreeable position could not have been assigned to me than the one just conferred as presiding officer, although but temporarily, over this assemblage of patriots and heroes, the true defenders of their country and the Union. Be assured it will ever be remembered and appreciated as the most precious incident of a long military career.—The object of this great military convention, if I understand it correctly, is to consider the principles demonstrated by the National Union Convention at Philadelphia, and the restoration policy of President Johnson. On these subjects I would simply remark, that the sooner Congress recognizes the States declared by a majority of its members to be out of the Union as constituent parts of the Union, and admits their loyal representatives to seats in the halls of Congress, and permits them to participate in the national legislation of the country, the sooner will be allayed the fears and apprehensions of the people of the dangers which again menace the peace of the country and the perpetuity of the Union, with the most bitter and vindictive feelings.

A war of words for thirty years was carried on between the northern radical abolitionists and the slaveholders of the southern States, and everything was said and done to keep alive the controversy, until it finally culminated in a rebellion in the spring of 1861, which, for atrocity, the sacrifice of lives, the expenditure of untold millions of money, the loss of property, followed by pestilence, famine, and desolation, has no parallel in the history of nations.

It may be asked with propriety what has President Johnson done that he should be denounced as a traitor and threatened with impeachment; is it anything more than for the exercise of the most noble and generous efforts to conciliate and bring back into the folds of the Union a brave people, and make the United States what they should be, a united, great people? It ought not to be forgotten that slavery, which engendered the rebellion, has been removed, and three or four millions of slaves have been declared free by an amendment of the Constitution. Those of the Southern States most interested in the abolition of slavery, which deprived them of a large amount of what they called property, and which they had considered all-important to their interest and welfare, quietly submitted to the amendment. Those who proposed the amendment omitted to guard against what would follow, when, too late, it was discovered that the freeing of 4,000,000 of slaves would increase the Southern representation in Congress from twenty-five to thirty representatives. This was to be overcome, lest the Abolition Radicals should lose that control of the Government, by an act of Congress or another amendment of the Constitution. Failing in these efforts, all that bitterness of feeling has been revived which existed for thirty years between the Radicals of the East and North and the Southern slaveholders. Another civil war is foreshadowed, unless the freedmen are placed on an equality with their former masters. If this cannot be accomplished, the Radical partizans, with a raging thirst for more blood and plunder, are again ready to invade the Southern States, and to lay waste the country already desolated, with the sword in one hand and the torch in the other. These revengeful partizans would leave their country a howling wilderness for the want of more victims to gratify an unsparing cruelty. If they should succeed in inflicting on the country another war, it would be more terrible than the one from which we have just emerged. It would not be confined to the Southern States, but would extend itself throughout the length and breadth of the United States, and only close with the overthrow of the best government devised, and the destruction of the finest country on the face of the globe. If such should be the fate of our great republican empire, the cause of it must not be sought for in the military companies, but in the forum, thronged with inflammatory orators and aspiring demagogues, with souls dead to their country's honor and spoiled with corruption. I will tell this great assemblage of officers, soldiers and sailors, most of whom have been engaged in many perilous battles, defending their country and their country's honor, that war is a great evil, and the greatest that can befall any country.

General Ewing addressed the Convention at length; after which, the Convention adjourned until to-morrow, when a permanent organization will be effected.

Five members of the late and last Philadelphia Convention assembled to drink at a saloon. Neither, however, could pay for them, as the pick-pockets had 'gone through' all five of them.

How the Matter Stands.

The unclouded intellect of the North sustains President Johnson's opposition to the Radical programme. We have seen nothing from any acknowledged statesman at the North, or any undoubted constitutional lawyer, that does not sanction the President. The Philadelphia Convention of Aug. 14th. was the most talented and conservative body of men, which has ever assembled in the nation. Fillmore, Ewing, Reverdy Johnson, Judge Curtis, George Ashmun, Winthrop, and others, sustain him. We yesterday published the able argument of John Quincy Adams, grandson of John Quincy Adams, of Mass. It is unanswerable. Every man of distinction in the South sustains the President's policy.

Hon. George Ashmun, of Mass., who presided over the Convention which nominated Mr. Lincoln, in a letter to the New York Convention which invited him to attend the ratification meeting in that city, on Monday last, says of President Johnson:

"I know Mr. Johnson well. He is honest, sagacious, true, and firm, and all such imputations upon his motives are most unjust. I know, too, that he is faithfully following the same line of generous and far-seeing policy which guided Mr. Lincoln up to the hour of his death, and I cannot be brought to doubt either its expediency or its justice. Certainly no higher or holier motive for action, in a public servant, can be suggested, than that of a desire for the immediate restoration to friendly relations of those parts of our country which have been alienated. The war, followed by a solid and lasting peace, may, after all, prove a blessing. But a hollow truce, out of which fiery passions and unscrupulous personal ambitions seek to have profitable harvest, cannot be anything but a curse. Restoration, upon the basis of mutual interests and mutual honor, promises everything which an honest heart can desire; and the resolutions of the Union Convention at Philadelphia, solemnly made and acceded to by Southern representatives of high personal character and position, give us all "guarantees for the future" which can be asked or wanted. Vengeance, hatred, heart-burnings and ill blood can be stimulated by high-sounding words of crimination and savage threats of a re-opened war; but if we desire a restored commerce between the alienated States, a restored credit for our national currency, restored prosperity to the industry of every part of our great country and a renewed and increased power to present an undivided and unbroken front upon all national questions toward the rest of the world, let us at once, without hesitation or reluctance, extend to the Southern States the most precious political right of Constitutional Government—the right of rep resentation, and thus make our Union "Now and forever, one and indivisible."

Further legislation on the negro code has been postponed by the State Legislature of South Carolina till the regular session. Resolutions were introduced and referred to the committee on federal relations, requesting the President to inform military officials that the war is ended in South Craolina; also requesting the discontinuance of the provost courts, and the restriction of the jurisdiction of the military courts within the limit prescribed by the articles of war.

Rev. Bishop Green, of Mississippi, an old and valued friend of ex-President Davis, is now on a visit to him in his apartment at Fortress Monroe, and will remain with him several days.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 20, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—A tournament and ball will be held at Townsville, Granville, on the 25th. prox. See announcement.

The Baptist Central Association will hold its next session at Forestville, commencing on Thursday before the second Sabbath in October.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We are requested by the Lady President of the Sewing Society, connected with the Memorial Association, to express the thanks of the Society to the following Merchants, &c., of the City for liberal contributions of articles, viz: Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., L. E. Heartt, Alex. Creech, S. H. Young, (with Wheeler & Co.,) Isaac Oettinger, Rosenthal, Grausman, Simpson, and Williams & Haywood. Their generous sympathy with the objects of the Association is gratefully appreciated.

GENEROUS DONATION.—The friends of the Ladies' Memorial Association for the County of Wake will be gratified to learn that a most beautiful lot, of two acres, located on the eastern extension of North St., between the residence of Hon. K. Rayner and the late residence of Col. Frank P. Haywood, has been presented to them by our liberal fellow-citizen, Henry Mordecai, Esq., and that, notwithstanding the increasing and exceedingly liberal contributions that the friends and members of the Association are making to the indigent poor of the city and neighborhood, a sufficient amount has been paid in, with promised contributions and the probable proceeds of the projected Fair, to insure the success of their enterprise.

A most beautiful design for the monument, and a diagram for the cemetery, have been presented. The lumber for the enclosure has been ordered, and ere the year shall close our community will be impressed with the energy and taste which the honored President, Mrs. L. O. B. Branch, and her board of managers, have exhibited, under obstacles of no ordinary character.

WE REGRET to learn that Hon. S. H. Rogers, Attorney General, was prevented by sickness from attending Nash Court, the present week. The hazard to Judges and lawyers, who reside in the upper counties, in attending the Courts in the lower Counties, subject to bilious fevers, at this season, is so great, that it strikes us that this Circuit ought to be arranged so that the last Courts should come first and the first last. The Fall ridings in the Eastern Counties, as a general rule, ought to be committed to the Judges residing in the East, or the time for commencing the Fall ridings should be changed to the 1st of October in all cases.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, SEPT. 19th., 1866.—Jno. Endy, Greensboro; W. C. Ashwell, C. O. Sanford, Petersburg; H. McMillan, Fayetteville; Jas. H. Gatlin, Murfreesboro; Jas. Darlinton, Jas. Lapping, N. C.; D. H. Davis, Salisbury.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Sept. 19th., 1866.—T. W. Laws, J. D. Smith, N. C. R. R.; Jas. Bencly, Chas. Holder, S. M. Mathews, New York; H. D. Bird, Petersburg, Va.; Jas. W. Wilson, Statesville, N. C.; L. B. Bynum, Pittsboro, N. C.; J. M. Turrentine, Hillsboro, N. C.; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk, Va.; W. B. Carr, Warrenton; G. Rosenthal, Haw River; N. S. Bishop, Norwich, Conn.; W. J. Doughty, Beaufort, N. C.; R. F. Lehman, E. W. Carpenter, Newbern, N. C.; E. G. Price, Hamilton, N. C.; D. W. Wardrop, C. R. Thomas, H. I. Menninger, Newbern N. C.

GRANVILLE COUNTY.—A friend, writing us from Granville, states that the conservatives of that county will support the following excellent ticket for the Legislature, viz: For the Senate, Jno. J. Speed, Esq.; For the Commons, Dr. P. P. Peace, Jno. Peed and Willis H. Jenkins.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.—Jno. P. Spright, Esq., of Greene, has announced himself as a candidate for the Senate from the District of Lenoir and Greene. Capt. Wm. Sutton and — King are candidates for the House of Commons in Lenoir.

Four candidates for the Senate are announced in Orange, viz: Capt. Jno. Berry, and Messrs. R. M. Jones, Jas. F. Craig and Thos. S. Vickers. Four candidates for the House are also announced, viz: Messrs. S. D. Umstead, W. W. Guess, B. C. Hopkins and Jno. F. Lyon.

JUSTICE TO NORTHERN MEN.—The Fayetteville News gives an account of a case tried at the late County Court of Cumberland, which affords a decisive refutation of the slanderous charge so often made by bad and malicious men, that Northern or Union men cannot have justice in the South. The parties were a Northern man and two citizens of Cumberland.

The Northern man indicted the North Carolinians for assault and battery, and they replied with a cross-shot indictment against him. They were, after a hearing of the case, fined one hundred dollars each and costs, and order three months imprisonment, and he was fined five dollars and costs.

THE WILMINGTON Dispatch says that the Jail expenses of New Hanover county are $45 per day. This heavy burden is entailed on the county by a worthless set of law-breakers who really prefer to lie in jail than to make an honest living by work. From all directions we hear that the jails are crowded with criminals—mostly freedmen—guilty of theft or violation of the peace.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—We are glad to learn that this popular institution has opened its present session with about seventy students. We hope to see all the Colleges of the State soon filled up.

RICHMOND MEDICAL COLLEGE.—We observe that Dr. Samuel Logan, of Charleston, S. C., has recently been elected Professor of Anatomy in this well-known institution. Its friends may well congratulate themselves on the discrimination shown by the Board of Visitors in making this appointment. In the community where he has long resided, Dr. Logan is known as a gentleman of the highest professional and social position, and his abilities as a teacher have been fully tested during his eight years' connection with the Medical College in Charleston, as Demonstrator of Anatomy, and his more recent occupation of the post of Adjunct Professor of Surgery in the same institution. During the late war he held a high position in the Medical staff of the army, and became extensively and favorably known to the profession in North and South Carolina. His accession to the Richmond school can hardly fail to enhance the popularity of that institution in both these States, and promote the success which is insured by its superior advantages. To those young men who desire to receive their professional training in a Southern School, the Medical College at Richmond offers every facility which could be reasonably desired for thorough medical instruction.

North Carolina Conference.

The next North Carolina Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, will commence its session in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, November the 7th. next. Bishop Pierce will preside. Some have desired a change in the time of meeting, but after consultation it has been deemed best that the original appointment of the Bishops should remain. The press of the State will please notice.

3-t

THE PRESIDENT of the Agricultural Society of Virginia has called a meeting of the Association to be held in Richmond on the 20th. of November. We hope that the President of our State Society will at once follow suit. Nothing more commends itself to our people at present than efforts to revive and re-establish the great cause of agriculture.

The Recent New England Elections.

In view of the ridiculous hullabaloo which has been made by the Radicals over the result of the recent local contest in Maine and Vermont, we submit to our readers the following very sensible comment on those elections from the St. Louis Republican:

"The elections in Vermont and Maine have resulted in favor of the Radicals. The Radicals throughout the country are jubilant and hopeful, accepting the result in these States as indication of the "way the cat will jump" in all the States in October and November.

These parties accept as indications and omens of triumph, that which is no prophetic sign at all. Nothing in the world, one way or the other, can be inferred from an election in Vermont or Maine, so far as the general result is concerned. Students of political statistics know this very well. In 1856, in the memorable contest between Buchanan and Fremont, Maine and Vermont both gave increased Republican majorities in September, and the Fremont party yelled itself hoarse with shouts of triumph over the result, just as the Radicals are doing now. But the elections in October and November in 1856 upset all their calculations, and disappointed their hopes based on the Vermont and Maine vote, the great Central States rolling up their votes for Buchanan, and overwhelming Fremont with defeat.

In 1862, we saw a similar spectacle. It was generally believed that a revolution in public sentiment had changed the relations of parties, and that the fall elections would bring the Democrats into the ascendant. The election came off in Vermont, and the result exhibited the tide of sentiment still running in the old channel.

The Radicals carried the State, and their party, from Boston to San Francisco, was crazy with delight. But in October and November the Democracy achieved an overwhelming victory from New York to Missouri. It will be so again in this year, 1866. The Radicals have really no foundation for hope, and the Conservatives none for discouragement, in the elections in the two New England States named, since they are no indications whatever of popular sentiment elsewhere.

No one is surprised by the result. It was fully expected, just as it is fully expected and conceded that Massachusetts will be carried by a large Radical majority. There has always been in the two States, Vermont and Maine, a singular isolation from the influences producing revolutions in opinion in other States. They steadily adhere to old creeds, uninfluenced by the strong tides sweeping away the foundations of parties elsewhere. Every Radical politician knows this, and when we see the Radicals elated to the skies by the victories in those States, reading in them a promise of general triumph, it is a proof of their willingness to catch at straws like a drowning man."

One of the coolest and most infamous instances of the sacrifice of the interests of a people to those of a political clique may be read in the report of the proceedings of the City Council of Baltimore. An ordinance appropriating very nearly one hundred thousand dollars to the building of a hall over the Lexington market was adopted, with the following proviso: "No bids shall be received or entertained from any party or parties who are not known to be thoroughly and unconditionally loyal men."

Botts has been writing up "The Great Rebellion: Its Secret History, Rise, Progress," and from the fact that the title also includes "Its Disastrous Failure," we opine that the work, which is in press, refers to the recent attempt to get up a Radical revolution in Louisiana, and to the late and feebler fizzle in Philadelphia.

MR. DAVIS' RELEASE.—A well-known citizen (says the Petersburg Index of yesterday) was suddenly summoned to Washington, by a telegraph received on Sunday afternoon, and left the city yesterday morning, his errand, it is said, having some connection with the recently-reported policy of the Administration towards Mr. Davis.

"Have you no mercy for the South?" asked a Georgian of one of the delegates to the Flesh-Pot Convention. "Nary a mercy," was the reply. "Come away from him," said a friend, "he's one of those radical mercy-narys. He'd go through you in a minute."

There are 36,000 idle negroes in the city of Washington, who have neither means nor disposition to obtain an honest living. The Tribune asks Northern farmers to give them employment. Mr. Webster once told a distinguished Senator that he "must skin his own skunks.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, MASS., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMITTER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

L. S.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Book-keeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unsurpassed facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise,
